FAMILY TRADITIONS

The name of the company “AKULCHEV” is the surname of the founder and owner. As a child, Sergei Nikolaevich Akulchev spent almost all his free time at the bread-baking complex, where his parents worked, and was very fond of watching the process of bread baking. In 1995, he has opened a small bakery. His father helped him install the equipment, and his mother worked on the quality of the product. Today a small bakery has become a large company that exports its products in many countries around the world.
